About Midland Trust

Midland specializes in holding alternative assets in IRA accounts. Alternative assets can include: real estate, precious metals, promissory notes, private equity, and more. With a self-directed IRA, investors have the freedom to select their own assets and manage them as they see fit; account owners call the shots. For those who want a smarter way to save for retirement, Midland can help you achieve the retirement you've always dreamed of. As an expert self-directed IRA administrator, we provide custodial services, record keeping and ongoing education for our clients.
