JAMIE POPE

Senior Advisor
Engineered Tax Services Inc.

Jamie Pope, Business Development Director for Engineered Tax Services, Inc., specializes in national client development, relationship management and strategic direction.

Mr. Pope has worked with high net worth individuals and advisors on tax strategies for over 30 years. Having worked at a commercial bank, trust company and investment bank, he has been part of the evolving tax code that has provided opportunities for clients and businesses with tax challenges.

Mr. Pope is a frequent guest speaker and professional educator for CPA's and A&E Designers. His lectures are geared towards the awareness of under-utilized tax incentives for property owners and top accounting firms.
